MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SAN BERNARDINO

AND

GLA UNIVERSITY, MATHURA

To promote academic cooperation, to strengthen educational and cultural ties, to support internationalization efforts on their respective campuses, and to achieve a successful and sustainable collaboration, California State University, San Bernardino, hereafter referred to as "CSUSB," and GLA University, Mathura, India, hereafter referred to as "GLAU," endorse this Memorandum of Understanding.

Subject to applicable law, regulations and university policies, both institutions will endeavor to encourage direct contact, educational and research cooperation among their constituents, including students, faculty members and staff, departments and research institutes, and will endeavor to cooperate in the fields of interest to both institutions. The parties contemplate the following forms of cooperation:

1. Study abroad programs for GLAU students to study at CSUSB for a full academic year, one or two academic semesters, or short term;
2. Study abroad programs for CSUSB students to study at GLAU for a full academic year, one or two academic terms, or short term;
3. Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures, and discussions;
4. Short-term training program for GLAU faculty.

Terms, conditions and arrangements (e.g., academic, logistics, financial) of joint activities will be identified and negotiated for each specific case, and must be memorialized in writing and executed by an authorized representative of each institution prior to the commencement of the associated activities.

It is understood that the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding will commence upon its mutual signing and remain in effect for a period of five years unless one university provides a six-month written notice to the other university to terminate it. Subject to a review, this Memorandum may be extended for an additional period of five years. Academic and administrative representatives from both institutions will discuss the terms of a renewal at least six months prior to the termination of the current Memorandum of Understanding.

This agreement can be modified upon mutual agreement between academic and administrative representatives of both institutions, provided that any such modification must be memorialized in writing and executed by an authorized representative of each institution.
